"To See or Not to See"

That is the Question.

There's no reason why you should not see if your glasses are right—the kind we sell.

It is part of our business to attend to those useful members—

YOUR EYES

And that we are meeting with marked success is evidenced by the daily increase of our optical business.

We Hate Bragging,

But beg to remind you that nothing in the way of correcting eye troubles, or grinding every kind of a lens for every kind of eye trouble is beyond our skill.

MORE NEW CITIZENS.

Supreme Court Busy With Naturalization Matters.

Naturalization matters occupied the attention of the Supreme Court all yesterday afternoon. Chief Justice Frear presided with Associate Justice Galbraith and Judge Stanley sitting with him.

Here is a list of the new American citizens admitted: Joseph Lightfoot, of England; Charles Steinman, of Germany; Halvor Myhre, of Norway; John T. Ward, of Norway; A. A. Carreiro, of Portugal; Charles B. Reynolds, of England; James Gregory, of Ireland; Fred. L. Leslie, of England; John H. Schnack, of Germany.

The new applicants for naturalization yesterday were: John Buckley, a native of Ireland, and George F. Renton, who was born in Washington but of British parents.

WITHDRAWS HIS APPLICATION.

Captain Wm. Smith Will Not Become an American.

Capt. Wm. Smith has withdrawn his application for naturalization papers as an American citizen. Captain Smith's case was a peculiar one, as he makes his home on his ship, the Moana Ala, which has flown the Hawaiian flag for several years, and considers Honolulu his home, while his family lives in Australia on land owned by the captain there.

TROUBLES OF THE EVANS'S.

Mrs. Evans Sues for Divorce From Her Husband.

After ten years of wedded bliss, Mrs.
Mary Ann Evans has concluded that marriage is a failure and yesterday she brought suit against her husband, William Evans, for absolute divorce.

Mrs. Evans asserts in her complaint that she was married in Honolulu on January 1st, 1890, by Rev. Alexander Mackintosh. She alleges that for several years past Evans has been in the habit of drinking too freely, sometimes remaining drunk for weeks at a time. He used frequently to abuse his wife and has failed to provide for her. More than that, Mrs. Evans charges that on January 15, 1900, she delivered to Mr. Evans the sum of $450 to deposit for her. He placed it in Bishop & Co.'s bank in his own name and refused to transfer it to her.
Mrs. Evans asks for absolute divorce and that her husband be compelled to pay over to her the amount of money in question and pay the costs of the suit.
Magoon and Long are Mrs. Evans' attorneys.

Two Ejectment Suits.

Ejectment proceedings were begun yesterday by the Kaplani Estate against W. R. Castle et al., to secure clear title to land on the corner of South street and Kawaiahae lane, in Honolulu. Another suit was begun by the same company against L. A. Thurston to clear title to land at Palikea, described as Royal Patent 4519, L. C. A. 28902, to Paikunui.

Suit for Life Insurance.

As administrator of the estate of D. B.
Smith, the well-known shoe merchant of Honolulu, Cecil Brown yesterday brought suit against the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States to secure the payment of a policy of $25,000, which the company has refused to pay.

Territory Demurs.

The Territory of Hawaii has filed a demurrer to the complaint of the Kaplani Estate Company, which brought suit last week to eject the Government from certain property in Punaia valley.

Court Notes.

Wm. Haywood, internal revenue collector for Hawaii, has been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the Territory.

Defendants in the assumpsit case of Cecil Brown vs. Akanalili et al. have been declared in default by Judge Humphreys.

The Supreme Court continued the hearing of the case of Cartwright vs. Iaukea et al. yesterday and the case will go on again today.

The Henry R. Worthington Company, in answering the assumpsit brought by L. B. Nutting, its local agent, makes a general denial of all the allegations in the plaintiff's complaint.

Judge Humphreys was occupied most of yesterday in hearing the ejectment case of John Ii Estate vs. H. B. Judd et al. The matter involves title to land adjacent to this city. It was not concluded at adjournment.

Friendship Cost Him $10.

Ten dollars is what it cost Tom Yan for interfering with a police officer in the discharge of his duty. The Celestial thought it was time for him to make a grand stand play in behalf of a friend of his who had been arrested by Officer Hanrahan. He pulled at the prisoner and pushed the officer and did what he could to prevent the friend from being carried to the police station.

The officer then turned his attention to Tom Yan and both were taken to the station. The probabilities are that Tom will send a bill of costs to his "friend."
